PART A: INTRODUCTION

A.1. What is the purpose of this Manual?

- A.1.1. Under the Promotion of Access to Information Act 2000 (“PAIA”), Hanmarié Lombaard Counselling Psychologist. (the Practice) is required to grant individuals access to records held by the Practice if that record is required by the individual to exercise or protect any legal right that individual enjoys under the law.
- A.1.2. Additionally, under the Protection of Personal Information 2013 (“POPIA”), the Practice is required to be open and transparent about how the Practice handles personal information and allow individuals to access and correct their personal information.
- A.1.3. The purpose of this Manual is to set out the information which the Practice is legally required to disclose under PAIA and POPIA, and to explain how you can exercise your statutory rights under PAIA and POPIA with respect to records and personal information handled by the Practice.
- A.1.4. The Practice is a practice in the field of Counselling Psychologist. We work in the health sector and are healthcare professionals registered under the Health Professions Act, 1974 and are subject to the rules and regulations of the Health Professions Council of SA (HPCSA).

A.2. What is the status and scope of this Manual?

This Manual (version 1.01) was last updated on 21 July 2025 and will become effective on 21 July 2025. This Manual may be revised from time to time to reflect changes in laws and regulations, or changes in the Practice's business operation.

A.3. Introduction to the Organisation

- A.3.1. The Practice falls within the definition of a "private body" and this Manual has been compiled in accordance with the said provisions and to fulfil the requirements of the Act.
- A.3.2. A "private body" is defined as any natural person who carries or has carried on any trade, business or profession, but only in such capacity or any partnership which carries or has carried on any trade, business or profession or any former or existing juristic person (e.g. any company, close corporation or business trust).

A.4. What is the Data Subject rights under the Promotion of Access to Information Act, 2000?

- A.4.1. On 9 March 2001, the Promotion of Access to Information Act, became operative, giving effect to the constitutional right of access to any information held by the State and any information that is held by another person and that is required for the exercise or protection of any rights; and to provide for matters connected therewith.
- A.4.2. Under PAIA, everyone has the right to access

- a) any information held by the state; and
- b) any information that is held by another person and that is required for the exercise or protection of any rights.

A.4.3. Records the Practice makes available under PAIA is described in Part C of this Manual. If you wish to make a request under PAIA the Practice, please follow the procedure described Section B of this Manual. Please note that your request will be subject to the applicable charges set out in Section B.5.

A.4.5. You can learn more about your rights under PAIA by contacting the office of the Information Regulator (“IR”) at:

Part B: Make a Request under PAIA

B.1. How can I make a request to the Practice under PAIA [S 51(1)(b)(iv)]?

- B.1.1. Records held by the Practice may be accessed on request only once the requirements for access have been met.
- B.1.2. A requester is any person making a request for access to a record of the Practice and in this regard, the Act distinguishes between two types of requesters:

B.1.2.1. Personal Requester

A personal requester is a requester who is seeking access to a record containing personal information about the requester. Subject to the provisions of the Act and applicable law, the Practice will provide the requested information or give access to any record about the requester's personal information. The prescribed fee for reproduction of the information requested will be charged by the Practice.

B.1.2.2. Other Requester

This requester (other than a personal requester) is entitled to request access to information pertaining to third parties. However, the Practice is not obliged to grant access prior to the requester fulfilling the requirements for access in terms of the Act. The prescribed fee for reproduction of the information requested will be charged by the Practice.

B.2. How will my PAIA request be processed by the Practice?

- B.2.1. A requester must comply with all the procedural requirements contained in the Act relating to a request for access to a record.
- B.2.2. A requester must complete the request form enclosed herewith in Appendix A and submit it, as well as the payment of a request fee, if applicable to the information officer at the physical address, or electronic mail address as stated herein.
- B.2.3. The request form must be filled in with enough information to at least enable the information officer to identify:
 - (a) The record or records requested.
 - (b) The identity of the requester.
 - (c) What form of access is required?
 - (d) The postal address or fax number of the requester.
- B.2.4. A requester must state that he or she requires the information to exercise or protect a right, and clearly state what the nature of the right is, so to be exercised or protected.
- B.2.5. The requester must also provide an explanation of why the requested record is required for the exercise or protection of that right.
- B.2.6. the Practice will process a request within 30 days, unless the requestor has stated special reasons which would satisfy the information officer that circumstances dictate that this period not be complied with.

- B.2.7. The requester shall be informed in writing whether access has been granted or denied. If, in addition, the requester requires the reasons for the decision in any other manner, he or she must state the way it is required.
- B.2.8. If a request is made on behalf of another person, the requester must then submit proof of the capacity in which the requester is making the request to the satisfaction of the information officer.
- B.2.9. If an individual is unable to complete the prescribed form because of illiteracy or disability, such a person may make the request orally to the Information Officer.

B.3. Grounds for Refusal of Access to Records in Terms of PAIA.

The following are the grounds on which the Practice may, subject to the exceptions contained in Chapter 4 of PAIA, refuse a Request for Access in accordance with Chapter 4 of PAIA:

- B.3.1. Mandatory protection of the privacy of a third party who is a natural person, including a deceased person, where such disclosure of Personal Information would be unreasonable.
- B.3.2. Mandatory protection of the commercial information of a third party, if the Records contain:
 - (a) Trade secrets of that third party.
 - (b) Financial, commercial, scientific, or technical information of the third party, the disclosure of which could likely cause harm to the financial or commercial interests of that third party; and/or
 - (c) Information disclosed in confidence by a third party to the Practice, the disclosure of which could put that third party at a disadvantage in contractual or other negotiations or prejudice the third party in commercial competition.
- B.3.3. Mandatory protection of confidential information of third parties if it is protected in terms of any agreement.
- B.3.4. Mandatory protection of the safety of individuals and the protection of property.
- B.3.5. Mandatory protection of Records that would be regarded as privileged in legal proceedings.
- B.3.6. Protection of the commercial information of the Practice, which may include:
 - (a) Trade secrets.
 - (b) Financial/commercial, scientific, or technical information, the disclosure of which could likely cause harm to the financial or commercial interests of the Practice.
 - (c) Information which, if disclosed, could put the Practice at a disadvantage in contractual or other negotiations or prejudice the Practice in commercial competition; and/or
 - (d) Computer programs which are owned by the Practice, and which are protected by copyright and intellectual property laws.
- B.3.7. Research information of the Practice or a third party, if such disclosure would place the research or the researcher at a serious disadvantage, and
- B.3.8. Requests for Records that are clearly frivolous or vexatious, or which involve an unreasonable diversion of resources.

B.4. What if I'm not happy about how the Practice handled my PAIA/POPIA request?

- B.4.1. If you are not satisfied about the way in which your request was handled by the Practice (including where you are not happy about the Access Fee charged by the Practice the length of time the Practice is taking to process your request), you can make an application for relief to the Constitutional Court, the High Court or another court of similar status.
- B.4.2. Please note that if you wish to make an application to the court, you will need to do so within 180 days of receiving the relevant decision made by the Practice.

B.5. What are the charges applicable to my PAIA/POPIA request?

- B.5.1. There are two types of fees which are payable under PAIA, namely Request Fee, and Access Fee.
- B.5.2. Request Fee is payable upon making a request to access records/personal information, and it is R 140.00 (inclusive of VAT) for each request.
